January 2010

GREETINGS

Dear Friends: Here we are again, already into the new year. 2010! Can you believe it? It seems so impossible as we enter in but as with previous years we will become very familiar with all that comes with it, as we grow within and finish victorious, not looking at what we see but rather trusting in the promises of God, who always leads us in triumph. We have had a very full year juggling our time at Morning Star Ranch, preaching at our regular Sunday circuit meetings, annual outreaches and guest speaking engagements. We have always felt it was important to make ourselves available to the people in the western culture, particularly to those who live in the isolated areas of the Great Basin. There is nothing like being there when the Lord opens the door to minister God's promises of the new covenant. Some of our most rewarding times of ministry have come through the daily encounters that cross our path while living and working in this area, such as day working at other ranches. Whenever a minister is needed, we are ever ready to oblige, such as the three weddings that Bo officiated last year .

MORNING STAR RANCH

No two days are ever the same at the ranch. We received a wide variety of guests last year. Though they were different they all shared a common interest. Ministers, fellow Christians, hunters, horse motel guests, cowboys, and adventure seekers chasing a dream of living the old west tradition. They all came for a time of refreshing and relaxation, fun and fellowship around a home cooked meal, and of course being built up spiritually.

COWBOY CAMPMEETING

2009 Was no exception as several campers came from near and far. (Even as far away as Texas and Oklahoma). The lodge was full, the meadow was dotted with RV's, tents and cowboy teepees. Keith Brown and Friends blessed us with a live band playing Christian country music, a real treat complete with a steel guitar. Tim and Jan Moore's authentic chuck wagon set the scene for the great meals served and enjoyed by all. It is such a special time that we all look forward to, sharing in the good Word, special music, praise and worship and of course the food and fellowship. It is always wonderful to see what the Holy Spirit does as we are obedient to walk out His leading.

2009 RANCH HAND RODEOS

In March we traveled to Winnemucca, NV for the Ranch Hand Rodeo where we held a Cowboy Church service in the grandstands. We went a little early in the week to take in the Cow Dog Trials, the Stock Horse Challenge and the Ranch Horse Sale in order to get aquatinted with an entirely different crowd that these events draw. Gary and Judy Porter did a great job with the music. April took us to The Spring Creek, NV Ranch Hand

Rodeo near Elko, NV. Many locals, contestants and even the stock contractor joined us for Cowboy Church.

JARBIDGE CENTENNIAL

We took part in the Centennial Celebration last August by shuttling hundreds of people around town to the various events with our wagon and team of black Percheron mares. Bo gave the opening invocation just before the parade. We rode our saddle horses and had our team pull the Moore's chuck wagon with Camie and Glenda Bean on board. Tom Freeman also came to help with the horses. We hosted a Chuck Wagon Breakfast, feeding over 200 people Sunday a.m. thanks to our head cook Barry Steen and the volunteers from Amazing Grace Fellowship of Twin Falls, ID. We ended the event with Cowboy Church in the park where Bo inspired us all with the Word of God.

OWYHEE, NV

We held three different two day meetings of preaching and teaching last year. In August, Pony Express Ministries (Bruce and Shara Repka) joined us for our Annual Outdoor Concert and BBQ Meeting. They really delivered the goods with their awesome Christian Country sound followed by Bo bringing the Word to the most remote Indian Reservation in America.
